v.	:
Luis E. Vega	:
:	:	CRIMINAL PRETRIAL ORDER
Defendant.	:

Arraignment was held on 10/03/2006 Trial of this matter is scheduled to commence on 01/22/2007 at 9:00 in Court Room 15B, United States Court House. Final Pretrial is set for 01/11/2007 at 10:00

A motion for continuance shall state with particularity the reasons justifying a trial date beyond the statutory time period as required by Title 18 U.S.C. §3161. The motion shall also contain the defendant's consent to a continuance in writing.

The attention of counsel for all parties is specifically directed to General Order No. 119 of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, adopted September 11, 1990 (Jury Utilization Management Plan), which provides that "plea negotiations must be completed by a date certain in advance of the scheduled trial." Accordingly, the Court will not accept a plea agreement which is submitted later than one day prior to the trial date.

Counsel shall immediately notify the Court in writing of any failure to provide discovery material. The Court will not continue a scheduled trial because of a failure to provide discovery if this requirement has not been followed.

Motions:

Pretrial motions, including motions to suppress, shall be filed on or before 12/28/2006, (14 days prior to final pretrial). Briefs In Opposition shall be filed on or before 01/04/2007, (7 days prior to final pretrial). If required, a Suppression Hearing will be held on the date of the Final Pretrial. Every motion filed shall be supported by a substantial foundation, explicitly stated pursuant to Local Rule 12.1. Counsel for Government shall respond in writing to a motion to suppress.

Trial Documents:

The following trial documents shall be submitted to the Court not later than 4:00 p.m., two working days prior to the final pretrial.

1. Counsel for the parties are directed to confer in person, agree upon stipulations, and reduce them to writing. Stipulations shall be signed by all counsel and submitted to the Court.
2. Counsel for the parties shall confer in person and, to the extent possible, agree upon and submit to the court a complete set of jury instructions. Additional proposed jury instructions, which are disputed by the parties, must be submitted to the Court and opposing counsel. Such proposed jury instructions shall be supported by legal authority.
THE COURT SHALL ADHERE CLOSELY TO PATTERN CRIMINAL JURY INSTRUCTIONS ISSUED BY THE SIXTH CIRCUIT AND THE FEDERAL JUDICIAL CENTER.
3. Counsel for the parties shall submit to the Court, in writing, a list of voir dire questions.
4. Counsel for the parties shall submit to the Court appropriate memoranda, with citations to legal authority, in support of evidentiary questions and any other legal issues which may reasonably be anticipated to arise at trial.

5. Counsel for the parties shall submit to the Court an estimate of the length of trial.
6. Counsel for the parties shall submit to the Court a final description of materials/exhibits that will be used in the electronic courtroom.

Electronic Courtroom

Judge Boyko's Courtroom is electronically wired for clear and efficient presentation of evidence and to expedite trials. Counsel are expected to utilize this technology for trial to the fullest extent within their knowledge and means. Training is available on the use of all equipment by the Judge's staff prior to trial. Any counsel requesting assistance on the use of the equipment shall make arrangements with the staff no later than three business days prior to trial.

Exhibits:

Prior to trial, counsel for the parties shall complete the following:

1. Counsel shall exchange demonstrative evidence, such as models or sketches, no later than two days prior to the date of trial.
2. All exhibits must be marked before trial in accordance with Local Rule 23.2.
3. One copy of all trial exhibits shall be submitted to the Court in a binder, along with an index of the exhibits, not later than the morning of the trial.

The Court encourages counsel to show exhibits to the jury during trial, however, counsel must have received a prior ruling of the court that the exhibits are admissible. If the court has granted admission, counsel is urged to use the electronic display for the court and jury and must also provide sufficient hard copies for each juror to utilize during deliberations.

Continuances:

The Court will not grant a continuance of a trial or hearing without a written motion stating the reason for the continuance. The Court will not consider any motion for a continuance due to a conflict of trial assignment dates unless a copy of the conflicting assignment is attached thereto.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
